

Catholic Scouting - Fall Retreat 2011

The Denver Archdiocese Catholic Committee on Scouting would like you to join us for a Fall Catholic Retreat.

Who:	All Scouts, boys and girls
When:	Saturday November 12 th , 2011 from 8:30am – 2:00pm (Mass begins at 9 am)
Where:	Mother Cabrini Shrine in Golden, Colorado. (Exit 259 on I-70)
Theme:	This year's retreat is an opportunity to earn the Footsteps of American Saints Award for Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha.
Cost:	$10/participant (youth and adult) for advance registration; cost covers retreat center, Award materials, and patch. Registration after Nov. 6th: $20 per participant
Other:	Bring your own Lunch and Water Bottle

Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha is the first Native American considered for sainthood. She is honored as patroness of ecology, nature and the environment. The day will include mass and a presentation on her life, crafts, rosary walk and Stations of the Cross.

Parents who attend can participate in Catholic Religious Awards training.

In order to assist planning Please Register in Advance by emailing
Jim Broski, Activities Chair: j.broski@comcast.net

For Questions:

Call Jim Broski, 720-318-8603 or Brick Spellman at 303-703-9101